GAMES TODAY.

Baltimore at Washington.

Probably 1.200 people were at Nationa Mr. Wagner's aggregation, whom he has termed "quitters." They were the faithful cranks in Washington. But what a wretched exhibition of ball playing they witness ed! The home team essayed to defeat the Orioles. Some of the Senators did play ball, but come did not.

Wrigley, Tucker, Brown, and McGuire part of the time put up a good game, but Rellly's efforts were like an apprentice at the painting business mixing other and orange colors. His work was so yellow that his suit became sun burned. He was simply borrible. Selbach showed his weakness. on ground balls, and one grass cutter go away from him.

As buse runners the Senators are not even in class C. Wrigley and O'Brien thought their singles were flexible, and both went out at second, while Relly showed as much judgment as the average fellow does when he is trying to look wise and is very stupid.

McJames started the errors, when he threw wild to second in the third, and pitcher, was given a trial after the sixth the bungling fielding which followed sided inning, but did not make much of a showthe Orioles in scoring five runs. Then he down and pitched excellent ball entil the eighth, when errors and stunidity held forth, and in the ninth he was hit

O'Brien seemed glued to the earth and overed about as much ground as a dear girl graduate does When her mother forces her to sweep the parlor on a Friday morn

The claitors played the game to the fancy of an experienced magnate and their work was conclusive evidence that the men whom Tom Brown is supposed to handle do not know a great deal about the most popular sport in this or any old country.

The most conspicuous feature of the contest was Reilly's failure to play ball. He disgusted the audience, and his bluff at Umpare McDonald when he muffed a thrown ball from McGuire was in kteping with his execrable fielding. The Senators were the first to score ending a run home in the second on Mc Suire's single, Tucker's force hit, Reills being bit by the pitcher and a safe one by O'Brien. McJames singled in the fourth. Brown hit for two bases, a fielder's choice, and McGatte's hit over Keeler's head for three bases, and two runs were scored.

In the fifth Brown singled after Me-James was retired. He stole second, and on Wrigiey's single to left went home.

McGuire started the sixth with a single: Tucker followed with a base hit: Reilly was again bit, two runs scoring on O'Brien's single to right, which he tried to stretch a double, but failed. In the ninth DeMontreville batted for McJames and singled. Farrell took Brown's place and walked, The latter was adcanced to second on the doctor's out at third off Wrigley's hit to McGraw. Mc fenturcless. Score:

Guire's hit stored Farrell, and that was the last run made by the Senators. The Orioles scored five in the third on singles by Clarke, Keeler, Jennings, and Kelley, and errors by McJames, McGure, Abbey, and Reilly. In the eighth an error by Wrigley, a passed ball, an out, and Doyle's single, netted two rons.

The visitors had a regular summer plente in the ninth. McGraw's two safetles, singles by Keeler, Jennings, Clarke, and Reitz's three-bagger, errors by McJames and Reilly, a base on balls, and a bit by pitcher resulted in seven mearned runs and the Orioles won. The Gorman's Challenge to Wrestlers. The result of the wrestling bout at the smoker of the Washington Athletic Club held on Tuesday evening has been the cause of at least one and perhaps two challenges to be issued by contesting wrestlers. The principal bout and one I the star events of the big card was the wrestling match between Mackey, of the Washington Athletic Club, and Gorman, of the Walkaway Club, in which the former threw Gorman two out of three times. Gorman is not satisfied with the result and has challenged Mackey and Akers to wrestle for $100 a side Both the challenged men are willing to wrestle for the purse, but it has not yet been decided who will "take on" Gorman. This will be decided at once and the time and place of contest will be anTHE CLEVELAND TROTS.

Boston, July 28.-The champion pacers were advertised for record breaking performances here today, and fast going was never attempted on a worse day. Horsemen present allowed that the cold and the stiff wind made a difference of at least three seconds in the time. With this as a basis, it is decined that Gentry would have made a new world's record under half way decent conditions. As it was 3,000 people saw Robert J. pace the half-mile track in 2:08 1-2, while the champion. John R. Gentry, did the trick in strong fashion in 2:07. From the point of a horseman, the performances of Tewksbury's horses was something won-derful under the conditions. Next Monday they show on the mile

TENNIS AT LONGWOOD.

Eugland Versus England the Feature of the Third Day.

Boston, July 28.-England vs. England was the feature of the third day of the Longwood tennis tournament. Dr. Eaves, Who is champion of Ireland and ranked among the first six in Eng land, fell down before Nisbitt in straight sets, the latter outplaying him at points. Score by sets: First set -Nisbitt, 9; Eaves, 7. Second set - Nisbitt, 6; Eaves, 4.

Third set-Nisbitt, S; Eaves, 6.
In George Wrenn, Larned found a much tougher proposition than he did in the Mahoney match of yesterday, and it was only after several sets had been played that he succeeded in conquering the young brother of the champion. Score by points: First set-Larned, 6; Wrenn, 2.

Second set - Wrenn, 6; Larned 2. Third set-Wrenn, 7; Larned, 4. Fourth set-Larned, 6; Wrenn, 1. Fifth set-Larned, 6; Wrenn, 2. The summaries of the other singles were J. D. Forbes defeated J. P. Paret, 6-2,

"Go Behind!"

To the Editor of The Times:

ing the Commissioners of the District for "more protection." Great Caesar! do they want the whole earth? What are we pedestriaus to do? We are rung at, we are run over, we are hustled out of the way for the convenience of these thronging wheelmen whenever we leave the sidewalk to cross the street.

The thing is a growing nuisance, more dargerous by far than the cable and electric cars. These will not leave the rack to hit you, but you can never judge where the bicycler will go, especially when he gets that wig-wag motion on his wheel. The hoodism on a bicycle is hoisted into an importance he never felt before. He owns the whole street! The pedestrians rightly feel that on the main thoroughfares in the city there hould be more stringent regulations governing these flyers than now exist. naking this assertion the lady bloyclers should be excepted. They have far more onsideration for those who walk than the men exercise, and I am inclined to believe that the rough experiences of those who walk are subjected to come from illbred hoodlums, and not from men who save been well brought up. My business keeps me much of the time on the streets on foot, and there is not a day that I am not incensed by seeing this illbred class of bicycle men insisting upon going in front of persons crossing the street on foot, when there is abundant room to pass behind. They ring their bells to stop you to accomplish this, and if you do not heed they will curve out of their way to gain their point. Why this is so no one can imagine. It is the plainest fact in the world that in attempting to head offpersons crossing the street, every second of time renders a collision more likely. One of those fellows in cutting me off recently curved from his proper side of the street onto the track of the street car, which I was bustening to gain, and thus be out of his way, and after passing he curved back to the same side of the track from which he started, when all the time there was nothing behind me to prevent his going on that side and maintain a straight line, though by going in front of me be almos brushed my face

I have a friend who was knocked down ne day last week by one of these fellows: his eyes were blackened by his face strik ing the pavement, and he was bruised from head to foot. He was so stunned he could not rise immediately, and when he did, the wheelman was fifty yards away looking back over his shoulder, but further than this he paid not the slightest attention to

The physiognomist can easily note th striking difference between those I describe and the gentlemen. Good breeding and nanners are as admirable on the street as in the drawing-room, and practically mor ecessary where their absence imperils life and limb. Give us common decency on the PERRY

The residence of Mr. Willis Pettit, in Wast End was broken into and robbed this evening by negro tramps. Mr. Pettit was absent at the time, but as soon as he learned of the occurrence he armed him self with a pistol and started to search for the miscreants. About 6 o'clock this evening he captured a gang of five ne groes, and with the assistance of Mr. R. D. Cotts, who was armed with a doublebarreled gun, the men were brought to the police station in this city and locked up. Three of the men, George Thomas, Frank Perry and George Boden, are held as witnesses, and the other two, James Dixon and Isalah Fequa, are charged with having committed the burglary.

Mrs. Charles Butts, who came near ending her life last night, is considered out of danger.

The last meeting of the present board of fire wardens will be held on Friday evening, at 5 o'clock, at the Hydraulion enginehouse, when arrangements will be made for transferring the affairs of the department to the new board. It is expected that Mr. John Harlow, who is the only member of the board re-elected, will be chosen president of the new board.

Alphonso Arrington was fined $5 in the police court this morning, for assaulting Justice Loveloy jesterday evening. The evidence was conflicting. The squire testified that he was in the act of tacking a notice to vacate on Arrington's house when he was assaulted and roughly handles by the defendant. Arrington stated that he had been attacked by the justice, and struck on the head with a hammer. He was not satisfied with the sentence of the ourt, and declared that he would secure a warrant for the 'sprire.

despair of living which comes over women who suffer from the peculiar weakness of their sex, is one of the most horrible symptoms. The entire nervous system and the mind are so affected that there seems to be nothing in life worth living for. A woman's whole outlook upon life is darkened by any derangement of the delicate organism which gives her her womanhood.
